SCHMITZ GETS LIGHT

MAYOR OF SAN FRANCISCO SAYS THE PRESIDENT CONVERTED HIM IN THE JAPANESE SCHOOL MATTER.

THE PRESIDENT RIGHT

Schmitz Says He is Opposed to the Wholesale and Unrestricted Immigration of Orientals to the Pacific Coast, but Would Admit Them to the Schools.—No Word From Ruef

San Francisco, Cal., Mar. 6.—The Examiner publishes an interview today with Eugene Schmitz at Los Angeles, where he arrived last night. Mayor Schmitz is reported as saying: "The results of my conference with President Roosevelt were successful even beyond my expectations. Altho' I went to Washington to confer with the President about admitting Japanese into the public schools, I found my views not altogether right, and when the matter was delayed, I was in a light I had not before considered. I could see that there was some reason for the attitude of the head of the nation took. I found President Roosevelt was strongly in favor of admitting the Japanese to the schools, and of course he is in a position to know what is really best. I feel that wholesale immigration of Orientals to this coast would be detrimental to the working people, and I am not in favor of letting the immigration bars down. But as far as letting them go to school, I have come to the decision that the Japanese have some right to get an education."

So far no word has been received as to the whereabouts of Abraham Ruef, who failed to appear in court yesterday when his case was called. Mayor Schmitz, who was indicted jointly with Ruef for extortion, will arrive in the city from the East about noon, his train being delayed. Up to noon today Abraham Ruef had not been found by Sheriff O'Neil. Judge Dunne permitted Attorney Henry to subpoena witnesses in the effort to ascertain his whereabouts.

ANOTHER PARLIAMENT OPENED WITH TROOPS.

Teheran, Persia, Mar. 6.—The oath of allegiance was administered to members of the Chamber of Deputies yesterday. Seven hundred men, comprising the volunteer corps of the National Guard, are being drilled each day. It is reported that unrest prevails throughout the country.

Partner of Carnegie Dead.

Pittsburg, Pa., Mar. 6.—Col. Homer J. Lindsay, assistant to the president of the Carnegie Steel Co., died today of Bright's disease. He was one of Andrew Carnegie's "young partners," having entered the employ of the company as a telegraph operator at the age of 18.

Lid off at Detroit.

Washington, March 6.—News has been received from Detroit that the pugilistic lid has been pried loose in that ballfield and that a police permit has been granted for a big show Friday night, with the understanding that no money is to be paid the contestants. Several fighters have already been secured under this arrangement. Harry Cobb will do a ten round stunt with Joe Cherry and Willie Spracklin and Kid Brock will mix things for ten rounds. Several preliminaries are also on the program. The only bout of any importance scheduled for Friday night is that between Muggsy Shoel of Cheyenne, Wyoming, and Freddie Weeks, of Cripple Creek, Colorado.

Couple of Colored Couples.

Marriage licenses have been granted the following: John Carter aged 49, and Josie Henderson, aged 35; Kelly Foster, aged 25, and Inez Turner, aged 27. All are colored people of Roswell. The first couple was married by Rev. Z. Z. Johnson.

Pueblo Democratic Convention.

Pueblo, Col., March 6.—The Democratic city convention is being held here today, with much rivalry in evidence. Both parties are making elaborate plans for the coming municipal campaign, which promises to be the hottest in years.

Shaw Assumes New Position.

Washington, March 6.—Leslie M. Shaw who retired from the treasury portfolio of President Roosevelt's cabinet last Monday, today assumed his new position as president of the Carnegie Trust Company, a newly organized New York financial institution. The late secretary and his family will reside in the metropolis, but his legal home will continue to be at Denison, Iowa. The capital stock of the concern of which Mr. Shaw is now the executive is $1,000,000, with a paid up surplus of half that amount, placing it among the smaller and less important New York financial institutions. Charles C. Dickenson is the retiring president. Mr. Shaw had other executive positions from the leading financial institutions all over the country, and came here accepting the offer of a St. Louis trust company but later decided in favor of the New York concern.

The presidential boom launched by the friends of the former secretary continues to be a subject of gossip among the few politicians and public men left in the capital, the general opinion being that there is but a remote possibility of Mr. Shaw securing the nomination. That he would be eminently acceptable to the conservative element of his party and to the financiers who have profited by his liberality in loaning public funds is not doubted; but most of these are already tied to the Foraker and Fairbanks booms.

It is a noteworthy fact that all the candidates for the Republican nomination now in the field represent, to a greater or lesser degree, the conservative wing of the party. It is not always the early bird that gets the worm, however, and the practical politicians of Washington confidently believe that at the present moment some LaFollette or other young disciple of the Roosevelt regime will swoop down on the convention and carry away the nomination.

MOTHER OF THAW WILL TESTIFY IN THE CASE.

New York, Mar. 6.—The way was cleared this morning for taking testimony of Mrs. William Thaw in the trial of her son, Harry K. Thaw, for the murder of Stanford White. District Attorney Jerome concluded his long cross examination of Dr. Chas. M. Wagner, one of the alienists for the defense, and the expert was finally excused just before the luncheon recess. Thaw's counsel then stated that the defendant's mother would testify this afternoon.

Jerome today took a new tack in his cross examination of Dr. Wagner and asked if in the acts surrounding the killing of White there was anything to enable the witness to differentiate between insanity and intoxication. Wagner declared that there was nothing whatever to indicate intoxication but much to indicate insanity. Wagner further testified that Thaw was of unsound mind when he married, but had sufficient intelligence to know what he was doing.

Mrs. William Thaw was the first witness called after luncheon. She said she noticed a change in her son when he came to Pittsburgh in 1903. He was absent minded, and apparently suffering from some nervous ailment. She broke down and cried while narrating the change in her son following his trip to Europe with Evelyn in 1903. In explaining his changed condition to her, Mrs. Thaw told her that the "wickedest man in New York had ruined his life."

Mrs. Thaw, after recovering from her first breakdown seemed about to weep again, and could not proceed. Justice Fitzgerald relieved the situation by ordering her testimony up to that time read to the jury. It had been given in a voice too low for the jury to hear.

Justice Fitzgerald overruled Mr. Jerome's objections to Mrs. Thaw's testimony of conversations with her son in 1904. She then related Harry's statements to her about White, in effect corroborating the testimony given by Evelyn Thaw. Mrs. Thaw said she laid down as a condition of their marriage that Evelyn's past life should be a closed book.

Polo Players Begin Practice.

Preparatory to the matched games with Amarillo players, during the gentlemen's convention, some of the polo players of Roswell are in the field. They started the practice games at the Military Institute grounds. Among those who went out to play were Dick Ballard, Johnnie Peck, George Slaughter, J. B. Stonehouse, Will Ballard and Ted Bedell. Others will join in the practice games day by day.

Houston Primary Election.

Houston, Tex., March 6.—Primary elections are being held today for the nomination of candidates for mayor and four commissioners under the new commission of municipal government. Two tickets are in the field. The present administration composed of Mayor H. B. Rice and Commissioners James A. Thompson, James B. Marion, James Appleby and J. Z. Gaston, is opposed by Dr. J. D. McGregor for mayor and W. J. Kephau, S. A. Oliver, F. M. Lutz and P. J. Larsen for commissioners. The election will be held on April 8. Great interest is manifested by the voters and about 6,000 poll tax receipts have been issued.

Capt. Chas. de Bremond entertained a few of his sheepmen friends yesterday afternoon, as he is noted for doing whenever visiting his ranch five miles east of the city, in a style no one will ever forget. This ranch is unsurpassed in the Pecos Valley and is stocked with as fine Shropshire sheep as any farm in the United States. Those present in the party were: C. C. Martin, A. D. Garrett, W. H. Long, John Matherson and Eliza White.

REPORT ON INSURANCE

NEW JERSEY INSURANCE INVESTIGATION COMMITTEE PRESENTS FINAL REPORT TO LEGISLATURE.

PRUDENTIAL COMPANY

The Report Largely Devoted to this Company's Surplus of Over Eighteen Millions.—Committee Recommends a Number of Bills to Correct Existing Evils.

Trenton, N. J., Mar. 6.—Senator Hilley presented to the senate today the report of the special committee appointed last year to investigate the subject of life insurance in New Jersey. He also offered seven bills to carry out the committee's recommendations.

Trenton, N. J., Mar. 6.—The report of the committee of the senate appointed last year to investigate the subject of life insurance in the state was made public today. By far the greater part of the report is devoted to the Prudential Insurance Company of America. The report contains an extended review of the Prudential from the time of organization to the present, when the company shows a surplus of $18,500,000. "It is claimed," says the report, "that this surplus belongs to the stockholders, subject to the contingent liability to policy holders. Rather than allow this accumulation to go on for the benefit of the stockholders at the expense of the policy holders, we would favor the repeal of the charter of the corporation. But the committee does not think such a remedy necessary."

In the place this extreme measure the committee has prepared a bill limiting the amount of the capital stock of any insurance company to $2,000,000 and restricting the profits to the stockholders to ten per cent.

THE AMERICAN INDIAN.

Will Be Seen at the Jamestown Exposition.

Norfolk, Va., March 6.—Indisputably identified with the Colonial history of America, and especially in the event which the Jamestown Exposition is designed to memorialize, the American Indian will be accorded representation and honor of no small degree in that celebration.

In addition to that portion of the Smithsonian exhibit pertaining to these primitive people, the State of Virginia has gathered for display a large and varied collection of authentic relics showing the customs, dress and handicraft of the natives prior to the advent of civilization. Every tribe identified with the Jamestown settlement will have representation in this category making the anthropological, ethnological and biological exhibits very complete and interesting. More entertaining than these will be the presence of some four hundred living Indians embracing the members of six tribes, among whom the exiled Tuscaroras will have place. These people were driven from their Virginia home by the aggressiveness of their more war-like neighbors long before Captain Smith landed on these shores, and turning their steps northward joined the Iroquois, among whom they found more congenial company if not a better climate. Acculturating the interest surrounding this tribe is the tradition held among them that they are descendants of a white colony that migrated from Wales in 1170 who were wrecked somewhere off the Virginia or Carolina coast. While this may not admit of authentication, the fact that this people once held undisputed sway over a wide section about Jamestown, and that their visit to the Exposition will be the first home-coming since their picturesque and romantic migration, will make them of very special interest to the intelligent visitor.

The Pamaunkees, who usurped their possessions and held the country around Jamestown when the Saxson savage first met, is the only branch of the great Powhatan tribe that has kept its name at the Exposition, and those lovers of quaint and romantic will enjoy the unique spectacle of these ancient enemies of the same race holding forth once more in the land of their fathers, under the patronage of and amid the palaces and pageants of the white usurpers of their common domain.

Historically considered the Tuscaroras and Pamaunkees will be entitled to the first consideration, but these will by no means complete the Indian encampment at Jamestown.

There will be some three hundred red men in the great 101 Ranch Show from Bliss, Oklahoma. These will include Otoes from Mexico, and Poncas, Cheyennes, Apaches, and Sioux from the plains of the west. This stupendous aggregation merits attention, not only as being the greatest of the amusement features of the Exposition, but for its unusually large and varied exhibit of human types and animal life.

The 101 Ranch is perhaps the best of the cattle ranches of the nation and the show business is somewhat of departure from its usual line, or in the nature of a side issue to vary the monotony of routine. At the end of the season's work it has been the custom to assemble the cowboys and Indians and take them for a holiday jaunt through some of the larger cities. In every place where the aggregation has exhibited the performance of the cowboy and Indian has been a wild West show that has appeared before them. Miller Brothers, the proprietors realizing the great possibilities at the Jamestown exposition this year decided to send an aggregation double the size of any they had before exhibited with the result that fifteen carloads of paraphernalia, including a grand total of 500 Indians—Cowboys and girls, with riding stock together with 50 long horn steers, and a herd of thirty-eight buffalo, will set up camp at the Exposition for the entire summer. Among the prominent Indian chiefs will be White Eagle, of the Crow nation; Big Wolf, a high ranking chief of the Cheyennes; Little Hole, chief of the Poncas; and Wah-Tah-Vaso, an Indian Princess of great beauty, and suggesting in type and character the famous Pocahontas. Besides these the aggregation will include the best Wild West talent the experience of Miller Brothers can provide.

The English-American drama of "Pocahontas" is another Exposition enterprise featuring the American Indian, and in which he will be accorded, as never before, the dignity and distinction to which his history and character entitle him. For the first time on the American stage the Indian will have place in a classical and legitimate drama. This play will be presented in a Norfolk theater, and during the same time the same management as the 101 Ranch Show. Indians from the latter concern will be selected for the group parts and war dances. The magnificent spectacular effects of its stage pictures, portraying the characters, scenes and incidents of the Jamestown settlement, with its unusual elegance of dialogue, and representing the sentiment of the occasion, encourages the promoters to believe that they will present to Exposition visitors a drama of great drama. From this it will be seen that the American Indian will have full honors accorded him at the Jamestown Exposition.

The state proposes to enable the Louisiana planters to engage immigrant labor in advance and with fixed wages without violating the contract labor law. By July 15 every planter desiring such labor to replace or supply a deficiency in available negro labor is to deposit $150 for every family he wishes, the sum to be a guarantee that he will repay the state for its expense in bringing over the immigrants. A state employee will then engage in Europe the required number of immigrants and the state will pay their way to this country.

FUNERAL OF H. C. EVANS IS LARGELY ATTENDED.

The last rites over the remains of the late Henry Clay Evans were held at two o'clock this afternoon at the Evans home at 314 North Richardson avenue, and a large crowd of people that filled the house and entire front yard was in attendance. The L. O. O. F. lodge was there in a body, the Canton being in full uniform and the members of other degrees wearing the insignia of their rank.

The service was conducted by Rev. Edwin Emerson Davis, pastor of the Presbyterian church, who delivered a brief address, commemorative of the life of the deceased and appealing to the Christian spirit of the large assemblage to look upon the death as a transformation to a better life.

The members of the lodge took charge of the ceremonies after the service at the house and conducted the interment at the South Side Cemetery. A great many people accompanied the body to the cemetery and many brought flowers to show their feeling of love and respect for the departed and sympathy for the bereaved.

MATTERS AT SANTA FE

APPOINTMENT OF CLARK AS SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT CONFIRMED BY COUNCIL THIS MORNING.

A SECRET INQUIRY

Governor Hagerman Held Absolutely Blameless by Public Opinion.—The House Reports Twenty Bills Passed.—The Sale of Land to Roswell for Cemetery Purposes Will Be Permitted.

Special to the Record.

Santa Fe, N. M., Mar. 6.—The council this morning confirmed the first appointment made by Governor Hagerman, that of Clark as superintendent of public instruction. It is believed that the majority of his appointments will now be confirmed.

The council passed the bill extending the corporate limits of Santa Fe, but killed the bill requiring the water and light companies to file a map of their lines. These are bills introduced by Speaker Baca in his fight against the municipal corporations of this city.

The council passed C. B. No. 58, for the employment of jail prisoners, and C. B. 63, regarding the property rights of husband and wife.

Clayton introduced an act relating to community land grants, and the Murray act for the payment of judges and clerks of election.

It is now given out that the committee appointed to investigate the alleged irregularities in connection with the timber lands of the Pennsylvania Development Co., will hold secret sessions, and that the public will not be admitted. There is a disposition here to force the inquiry into the administration of the land matters, and this appears to be what the other fellows do not want. It is generally conceded that Governor Hagerman is absolutely clear of all blame.

Special to the Daily Record.

Santa Fe, N. M., Mar. 6.—House Bill No. 61, changing the boundaries of Quay county by taking portions of San Miguel and Union counties passed the house yesterday afternoon.

Speaker Baca introduced a bill providing for holding of a constitutional convention by the delegates elected at the last election. Twenty bills were reported by the chief clerk of the house to the council this morning as having passed the house.

Among the number is a bill providing for the sale of land to Roswell for cemetery purposes. The bill now goes to the Governor. The house has not yet reported the passage of the amended council bill, No. 65, to the council.

HOUSE BILL NO. 129.

An Act Relating to Sidewalks in Cities and Towns.

(Introduced by S. Mirabal, by request February 25, 1907; read first and second times by title, ordered translated and printed and referred to Committee on Corporations.)

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE TERRITORY OF NEW MEXICO:

Section 1. That whenever, in any incorporated city or town, a sidewalk has been constructed in conformity with the ordinances existing at the time of its construction, it shall not be possible by ordinance or otherwise to require another or a new or different sidewalk to be constructed in place thereof, within three years of the date of the construction of such sidewalk, and any ordinance attempting to require the construction of a new sidewalk in place of one that was laid according to existing ordinances, within three years from the time of its construction, shall be null and void.

Sec. 2. That all acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed, and this act shall take effect from and after its passage.

Card of Thanks.

Words cannot express our thanks and appreciation of those friends who shared with us the lonely vigil by the bedside of our loved one; no sweeter memory can live in any heart than the memory of their untiring devotion to the one that has just left us. The waves of sorrow break upon every shore and we cannot but hope that friends as true may gather around each one of them should sorrow invade their home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Cole.

The Roswell Trade Directory appears to have filled a long felt want. At slight expense it keeps the names of all the leading firms of the city constantly in the paper, so that a stranger picking up the Record anywhere has a pretty good index to what kind of a town it come from.

Marriage License was issued this afternoon to Dario Franco, aged 23, and Angelo Anchondo, aged 18, both of Roswell. They will be married tonight at the bride's home in Chinabush addition, by Judge Evans.
